Copyright Literacy Competencies of Information Professionals: The Case of Turkey

Serap Kurbanoğlu
Hacettepe University
Copyright Literacy is important for LIS professionals.
111 participant

53.66% male

64.63% between 30-49 years old

50% holds undergraduate degree

97.56% has a degree in LIS

48.78% works in university libraries
General knowledge & awareness

- Copyright - orphan works
- Copyright - out-of-print works
- Copyright - materials from public domain
- Copyright - digitization
- Fair Use
- Open Access, Open Data, Open Educational Resources
- Copyleft
- Creative Commons Licences
- Copyright - virtual services within e-learning practices
- Copyright - institutional repositories
- Licensing conditions in your institution
- Licensing for information sources
- Clearing Rights
- Collective Rights Management Organizations
- Copyright institutions – international
- Copyright institutions – national level
- Copyright law – international
- Copyright law – national

- No answer
- Extremely familiar
- Moderately familiar
- Somewhat familiar
- Slightly familiar
- Not at all familiar

General knowledge & awareness
Level of awareness on copyright issues

- not at all aware
- slightly aware
- somewhat aware
- moderately aware
- extremely aware
Where to search for information

- colleagues
- lawyers
- books, articles
- web sites
- blogs/wikis
- discussion lists
- WIPO
- eIFL
- IFLA
- ICA
- COM
- national associations
- experts
- other
Level of interest on copyright issues

- not at all interested
- slightly interested
- somewhat interested
- moderately interested
- extremely interested
In your country is there a national strategy for copyright?
Which is included in your national copyright legislation?

- a duration of copyright protection
- exceptions for libraries
- exceptions for private use
- rights for librarians
- orphan works
- other
Awareness of initiatives of international organizations (IFLA & eIFL)
Copyright policy in institutional level

- does your institution possess copyright protected resources?
- is institutional copyright policy necessary?
- do you have copyright policy in your institution?
- is there a person in charge of copyright issues?
Should LIS education include copyright issues?

- Agree
- Neither agree or disagree
- Disagree
- No answer
Appropriate level for introducing Intellectual Property issues

- none
- PhD
- master
- undergraduate

Level: 0-100
Thanks